INDEX TO VOLUME X.

A.

Arabs, and their Horses, 447.
Antiquities at Brescia, 92.
Augustine, St., MS. of, 92.
Architects, Lives of celebrated, by Milizia, 181.—early history of the Art, 182, 3—Roman Architecture, 183—Temple of St. Sophia, 184—Fifteenth and Sixteenth centuries, ib.—Brunelleschi, ib.—Michel Angelo, 185—St. Peter's at Rome, ib.
Africa, survey of the coasts of, 285.
Antiquarian pursuits vindicated from the imputation of inutility, 385.
Agrippe, Henry Cornelius, of the vanity and uncertainty of Arts and Sciences, 521—account of the Author, 521, 2—list of his Works, 523—pestilential effects of Knowledge, ib.—vanity of History, 523, 4—Rhetoric, Technical Memory, Mathematics, Arithmetic, 524—Music, Dancing, Geometry, 525—Painting, Architecture, Astronomy, Astrology, 526—Magic, Moral Philosophy, Politics, 527, 8—Courts and Courtiers, 528—Fishing, Hunting, Fowling, Warfare, Nobility, Physic, 529—Cookery, Law and Lawyers, 530—Divinity, 531.
Andorra, the Republic of, 366—Smuggling the chief occupation, 368—treatment of Travellers, 369.
Australia, survey of the Intertropical and Western Coasts of, by Capt. P. P. King, R.N., 481—meeting with the natives of N. Holland, 482—their great expertness in thieving, 483—effect of a Looking-Glass on the Savages, 484.
Absurdities in Prose and Verse, 568.

B.

Bachelor's Beat, the, 168.
Baltimore, attack on, by the British, 241.
Barometer, improved, 380.
Barbadoes, True and Exact History of, by Richard Ligon, Gent., 509—the Author's voyage from London to Barbadoes, 509—discovery of the Island by the Portuguese, 510—possession taken by the English, ib.—different grants from the Crown and disputes consequent thereupon, ib.—description of the Island, 511—Eatables, ib.—Redemptionists, 512—Mosquitoes and Ants, 513—Anecdotes of the Slaves, 514—Beasts and Birds, 518—Trees, 519—Sugar-Cane, 520.
Benyowski, narrative of his death, 363.
Benger, Eliz. O. Memoir of, 378.
Britton, John, Brief Memoir of, 1—his Cathedral Antiquities, ib.
Biography.
Madame de Genlis, 51.
Charles Mills, 91.
Major Cartwright, 131.
Lindley Murray, 139.
Bishop Heber, 179.
Biography.
Karamsin, 283.
William Gifford, 375.
Miss Benger, 378.
John Nichols, 475.
Orator Henley, 500.
Bishops of Winchester, Lives of, 568.
General Caulaincourt, 565.
Boarwolf, the, a Tale, 216.
Brotherhood of Mercy, at Florence, History of the, 222—its curious origin in 1240, 224—particular account of the Institution, 225.
Bores, Thoughts on, by Miss Edgeworth, 350, 410.
Botany, 382.
Book Collector's Manual, 567.
Brunelleschi, the Architect, 184.
Burmese War, Narrative of, by Snodgrass, 353—Causes of the War, 355—Burmese mode of fighting, 356—Sanguinary defeat of the Invulnerables, 358—Submission of the Burmese King, 362.
Buckingham's Travels in Mesopotamia, 547.
Burial Place, Carlsrhue, 567.

C.

Cathedral Antiquities (Britton's), 1—Remarks on Church Architecture, 2—Willis's Survey, 3—History of Salisbury Cathedral, 7—notice of several Bishops of that Diocese, 7, 19.
Cartwright, Major John, his life and correspondence, 131—his early life spent in the Navy, 132—his first pamphlet on reform, 133—Tooke's trial, 133—Hampden club, 135—the Major's political expeditions, 135, 6—his trial and conviction for a political conspiracy, 137—Letter from Dr. Parr, 137—his private life amiable and honourable, 138.
Champollion's Egyptian Antiquities, 256.
Carlos, Don, of Spain, 336.
Canary Birds, 380.
Cramer, the Rev. J. A., description of Ancient Italy, 385.
Caucasus, the Prisoners in the, 431.
Catherine, Empress of Russia, 454.
Caulaincourt, General, 565.
Canterbury Cathedral, Heraldric Notices of, 568.
Caffer Campaigns, 312—internal wars of the Caffers in 1818, 312—the Prophet Makanna, 313—leads the Caffers against the English in Graham's Town, 314—defeated with great slaughter, ib.—taken prisoner, 315—is drowned in attempting to escape, 316.
Celts, 389.
Chronologer, the, 251.
Copyright Laws of England, injurious effects of, 285.
Coins, old, 286.
Cookery, 317.
Cochineal in Spain, 381.
Coal-Mines in France, 566.
Colossus at Rhodes, 567.

D.

Drafts on La Fitte, 273.
Dramatic Criticisms, by Tieck, 289—Gehe's Anne Boleyn, 289—Wallenstein, 291—Dramatic Genius of Schiller, 292—English Stage, 293—Kemble, 294—Kean, Young, C. Kemble, Young, Miss O'Neil, 295.—Shakspeare, 296.
Dramatic Tales, by Miss Edgeworth, 567.
Druid's Celtic, 567.
Dreams, a Chapter on, 496.
Discovery Ships, Russian, 286.

E.

Ellenborough, Lord, 278.
Elmsley, Dr., Literary character and labours of, 532.
Erskine, Lord, Anecdotes of, 275, 6.
Economy and Cookery, 317.
Egypt, Modern, History of, 97—Buonaparte's Invasion, ib.—Massacre of the Beys, 100—early life and adventures of Mohammed Ali, 101—made Pacha, 102—English expedition under Gen. Frazer, 103—conduct of Mohammed after their departure, 103—470 Mamelukes massacred by his orders, 104—War with the Wahabees, 106—Conquest of Sennaar, 108—state of Mohammed's Army, 109—his Navy, 110—Manufactures and Commerce, 113, '14, '15.
Egyptian Antiquities, lately brought to France, 256.
——— Hieroglyphics, 286.

F.

Franklin's Expedition, 93.
France, state of Society in, 61.
———, Anecdotes of the Revolution, by Morellet, 278.

G.

German Novelists, by Roscoe, 29.
Genlis, Memoirs of Mad. 51—extreme vanity of the Authoress, 52—her character as a Novelist, 54—her opinion of Mad. de Stael, 55—Anecdotes of French society, 57, 59—Remarks on French and English Manners and Morals, 61.
Geology of Central France, 568.
Greek Grammar, 568.
Guise, the Duke of, at the Siege of Metz, 164.
Gifford, Lord, Anecdotes of, 276, 7.
Gifford, William, Memoir of, 375—obscurity and misery of his early years, ib.—patronised by Lord Grosvenor, 376—his Translation of Juvenal, 377—Baviad and Mæviad, ib.—the Antijacobin, ib.—the Quarterly Review, 378.

H.

Heber, the Right Rev. Reginald, Lord Bishop of Calcutta, 179—highly distinguished at University, 179—his Poem, "Palestine," ib.—his ecclesiastical services and promotion, 180—Death, ib.
Herculaneum, 397.
Henley, Orator, 500—his Birth and Education, 501—established as Curate at Melbon, 502—presented to a Living, ib.—which he resigns, 503—establishes a place of Worship called the Oratory, 503—his Primitive Liturgy, ib.—projects a London University, 505—his Controversies, 506.
Herman, Professor, causes of his dislike to Dr. Elmsley, 536.
Hill, Sergeant, Anecdotes of, 274.
Historical and Biographical Commentaries, 568.
Hogarth's Pictures, 380.
Honey Bee, Treatise on the Natural History, Physiology, and Management of, 568.

I.

Italian Emigrant, Adventures of an, 226—Arrival at Barcelona, and occurrences there, 227—the Author enters the Constitutional service, 229—enormities of the Governor of Alicant, 230—Alicant taken by the French, 231—subsequent Adventures, 231, '2, '3—Author's Imprisonment at Barcelona, 235—Transactions in the Prison, 237—his Release and Arrival in England, 238.
Italy, Ancient, Geographical and Historical Description of, by the Rev. J. A. Cramer, 385—Inquiry as to the original Inhabitants, 388—Obscurity of early Roman History, 394—Silence of the early Greek Writers on this subject, 395—Grecian Colonies in Italy, 396—Herculaneum and Pompeii, 397.
India, Political History of, by Major Gen. Sir John Malcolm, 21—general Remarks on the Work, 21, 22—Origin of British Power in the East, 23—Lord Clive, 23—Warren Hastings, 24—subsequent Governors of India, 25—Administration of Lord Cornwallis, 26—Lord Wellesley, 27—Lord Hastings, ib.
Inquisition of Spain, History of, by Llorente, 328—earlier Works on the same subject, 329—Doubts of Llorente's credit, 333—Establishment of the Inquisition, 333—Mode of Procedure at Examination, 334—Examination of Torralva, 335—the Infante Don Carlos, 336—the Inquisition in Modern Times, 338.

J.

Juvenile Quarterly Review, 568.

K.

Karamsin, Memoir of, 283.
Kant, the last Days of, 466, 489.
Kemble, 294.
King's Survey of Australia, 481.
Kirkstall Abbey, Historical, Antiquarian and Picturesque account of, 568.

L.

Leipsic Fair, 92.
Livy, the Lost Books of, 92.
——— his qualifications as an Historian, 382.
Literary Intelligence, 94, 191, 287, 382, 479, 567, 568.
Lithgow's Rare Adventures, 202—his Reasons for Travelling, 203—Battle between an Italian Vessel and a Turkish Galley, 205—the Author's Adventures in Greece and Crete, 205, 7—Constantinople and Syria, 208, 9—Journey across the Desert to Cairo, 209—Buries three Dutchmen, his Companions, ib.—Arrested and imprisoned at Malaga as a Spy, 210—Tortured by the Inquisition, 210, 11, 12—his release and return home, 215.
Literature, Royal Society of, 478.
Literary Society of Perth, 478.
Ligon's History of Barbadoes, 509.
Longsword, Earl of Salisbury, 11.
London Consumption, 94.

Llorente's History of the Inquisition of Spain, 328.
London, the Lord Mayor of, his Visit to Oxford, 370—Arrangements for the Journey, 371—Departure from the Mansion House, ib.—Explosion of a Powder Mill, 372—Reception at Oxford, ib.—the Lord Mayor hears a Lecture on Digestion, 373—sublime Genius of the Author of the Narrative, 374.
Lowe, Sir Hudson, 567.
Lusus Naturæ, a Double Child, 204.
Luck and Ill Luck, 404.

M.

Malcolm's History of India, 21. (See India.)
Malta, Knights of, 286.
Makanna, the Caffer Prophet, 312. (See Caffer.)
Metz, Siege of, by Charles V., 164.
Mexican Antiquities, 285.
——— Manuscript, 381.
Mesopotamia, Travels in, by J. S. Buckingham, 547—Journey from Aleppo to Shahraboor, 548—Caravan attacked by a Troop of Turcomans, 549—Accuracy of Xenophon's Description of the Plains of Mesopotamia, 550—Supper Party in Orfah, 552—History and Description of Orfah, 554—Camp of a Robber Chief, 555—Arrival at Diarbekr, 559—Commerce and Manufactures of that City, 560.
Mill's History of India, 21.
Milton's Life, by Todd, 67—Information respecting his Private Life derived from State Papers lately discovered, 68—his Treatise on Theology, 73.
Mills, Charles, Memoirs of, 91.
Milizia's Lives of Celebrated Architects, 181—Life of the Author, 181, 2.
Michael Angelo and the Church of St. Peter's, 185.
Mohammed Ali, his History, 101. (See Egypt.)
Mont Blanc, visited by Captain Sherwill, 258—Valley of Chamouni, ib.—Chalêt de la Part, 259—Glacier des Bossons, 260—Les Grands Mulets, 262—Glacier de Tacconai, 306—Drowsiness of the Travellers, 307—Arrival at the Summit, 308—Sensations experienced, 310—Manner of descending, 310, 400—Advice to Persons undertaking the Ascent, 403.
Morellet's Interesting Narrative of Events during the French Revolution, 279.
Money, on the Want of, 344.
Moscow, New Theatre at, 382.
Murray, Lindley, Memoirs of, 139—his moral Reflections, 140—his early Life, 140—Removes from New York to England for his Health, 143—his Grammar, 144—Prices received for that and his other Works, 144—his Mode of Life during his latter Years, 145, 6—last Illness and Death, 147.
Museum of Natural History at Paris, 148—Founded by Louis XIII. in 1635, greatly improved by Buffon, 149—History of the Institution from that time, 149—158.

N.

Naufragus, the Life and Voyages of, 567.
New Orleans, Expedition against, by the British, 245—Slaughter of the Troops under General Keane, 247—Attack of the American Lines, 249.
Nikkur Holl, the, a Tale, 264, 319.
Nichols, John, F.S.A., Memoir of, 474.
Novelists, German, by Roscoe, 29.
North-West Passage, 479.

O.

O'Shaughnessy, Colonel, 328.
Ornithology, Selby's, 37—the Golden Eagle, 38—the Raven, 43—the Owl, 45—the Dove, 47.
Olgiati Tragedia di Giovanni Battista Testadi Trino, 567.

P.

Platinum, New Mines of, 93.
Parey, Ambrose, Travels and Adventures of, 158—curious Treatment of Gun-Shot Wounds, 160—a Dead Man robbed by a Priest, 162—Death from a Ball without apparent external injury, 163—Siege of Dauvilliers, 163—particular Account of the Siege of Metz, by Charles V., 164.
Patten, the Rev. Robert, his History of the Rebellion in 1715, 193.
Paint, new White, 381.
Painting on Glass, 479.
Phrenology, 77—existence of the Organs described by Phrenologists, denied, 78—as also the division of the Faculties, 80—manner in which objections to the system are evaded, 121—the whole science shown to be delusive from the actual want of distinct Organs in the Brain, 127—and from the effects produced by injuries to any portion, 128.
Pelasgi, 391.
Persia, Sketches of, 446—Arabs and their Horses, 447—Persian Hunting, 448—Tales, 449—Merchants, 450—condition of the Female Sex, 451.
Person of Christ, second Thoughts on the, 568.
Pictures, living, 382.
Philosophy of the Human Mind, by D. Stewart, 441—Language, 442—sympathetic imitation, 444.
Polish periodical Literature, 381.
Pompeii, inquiry into the time and manner of its destruction, 397.

R.

Railway from Liverpool to Manchester, 33.
Raining Trees, 285.
Rebellion in 1715, Patten's History of, 193—state of Parties after the Revolution, and at the accession of George I., 194—the Pretender proclaimed by the Earl of Mar, 195—the English Insurgents under Derwentwater and Forster, 196—Mar's Manifesto, 197—a detachment of the Rebel Army advances into Lancashire, 200—captured at Preston by General Carpenter, 201—Battle of Dumblane and suppression of the Rebellion, ib.
Reviews published at Paris, 285.
Rio de la Plata, Narrative of a Journey from, 568.
Roman Antiquities, 381.
——— Foot, 382.
Rocks, tertiary and secondary, 567.
Robson's Picturesque Views, 567.
Russia, Segur's Mission to, 453—Anecdotes of the Empress Catherine, 454, 5.

S.

Salisbury Cathedral, History of, 7.
Sarum, old and new, 9.
Spain, Anecdotes of the Civil War in 1823, 230.
Sanscrit Language, 444.
Spanish Biography, 567.
Slaves in Barbadoes, 515.
Sepulture, ancient, 93.
Skeletons discovered in Suffolk, 381.
Stewart's Philosophy of the Human Mind, 441.
Segur's Mission to Russia, 453.
Schiller, his Dramatic Productions, 291.
Scripture Lexicon, 567.
Songs of a Summer Night, 254.
Sophocles, Oxford Edition of, 532—literary Character and labours of Dr. Elmsley, 533—first publication of the Roman Scholia on Sophocles, 537—Edition of them by Elmsley and Gaisford, 538—Account of the different MSS. of Sophocles at Florence, Rome, Naples, Paris, in England, 540—Germany, Moscow, 541—Printed Editions, 541–547.
Style, Vulgar Innovations on, 478.

T.

Twaddler, Definition of, 139.
Tasso, translated by Wiffen, 414—character of Tasso and his Poetry, 423—Remarks on his different Translators, 414–420.
Travels. (See Voyages.)
Theophrastus, the Characters of, 187.
Trè Giuli, the, by Casti, 189.
Theology, 568.
Tieck's Dramatic Criticisms, 289.
Torralva, Dr. Eugene, his Examination by the Inquisition, 335.
Thorwaltzen, the Sculptor, 458—his Character as an Artist, 460—Description of some of his Productions, 461.
Tone, Theobald Wolfe, Memoirs of, 568.

V.

Vaccination, 286.
Villeroy, Castle of, 568.
Unitarianism abandoned, 568.
Voyages and Travels.
William Lithgow, 202.
Captain Sherwill's Visit to Mont Blanc, 258, 396, 400.
The Lord Mayor of London, 370
Ambrose Parey, 158.
Persia, 446.
Barbadoes, by Richard Ligon, 509
Mesopotamia, by Buckingham, 547

W.

Wahabees, 105.
Washington City, captured by the British, 241.
Wesleyan Methodism, Chronicles of, 567.
Willis, Browne, his Survey of the Cathedrals, 3—Notice of his Life, 3, 4.
Whims and Oddities, by T. Hood, 298—Love, 299—a Sea Scene, ib.—the Spoiled Child, 300—the Last Man, 301—the Irish Schoolmaster, 303.
Wiffen's Translation of Tasso, 414.
Woodstock, History and Antiquities of the Town and Honour of, 567.
World, a Peep at the, 568.

POETRY.

The Broken Gold, 168.
The Black Watch, 547.
The Cliffs of Dover, 21.
The Cross in the Wilderness, 75.
Come, thou old, unloving Scribe, 179.
The Change, 187.
A Dream of Youth, 50.
Death, a Dealer, 116.
The Deserted House, 446.
The Enchanted Castle, 131.
Earth to Earth, 273.
Elegiac Stanzas, 311.
The Felon, 191.
The First Wanderer, 222.
A Father's Grief, 253.
To Floranthe, 284.
A Family Group, 378.
The Far Home, 486.
The Greek and the Turkman, 67.
The Hour of Prayer, 189.
Have you not seen the lengthening line, 264.
The Illuminated City, 148.
The Kaiser's Feast, 226.
The King and the Lady, 248.
The Lover to his Faithless Mistress, 29.
Last Rites, 168.
The Lady's Song, 254.
The Lover's Song, 255.
The last Tree of the Forest, 283.
Love, 279.
The Last Man, 301.
The Martyr Student, 51.
Man's Heart, 250.
The Mermaid of Margate, 258.
O, breathe no more that simple air, 215.
O, what is pleasure, 370.
The Poet's Song, 256.
The Palm Tree, 305.
Pauline, 327.
Poesy, 413.
The Queen of Prussia's Tomb, 259.
The Restoration of Israel, 189.
A Retrospective Review, 201.
The Robber's Song, 255.
A Sea Scene, 299.
The Spells of Home, 343.
Similitudes, 532.
The Tablet of Truth, 453.
The Things that Change, 496.
The Twins of Lamerton, 564.
The Visionary, 215.
Valentine's Day, 379.
Voice of the mighty deep, 458.
Winter, 316.
The Year Twenty-Six, 237.
Vernal Stanzas, 564.